From Revolutions to Reflections: On the Threshold of the Fourth Decade of Czech Oral History

OPAVA, CZECHIA

17–18 SEPTEMBER 2026

The Czech Oral History Association, in collaboration with the Faculty of Philosophy and Science of the Silesian University in Opava and the Faculty of Humanities of Charles University, invites you to the 10th International COHA Conference From Revolutions to Reflections: On the Threshold of the Fourth Decade of Czech Oral History. The event will take place in the Martin Černožorský Auditorium of the Silesian University in Opava.

The conference will be held on the occasion of this year's 30th anniversary of the launch of the first Czech oral history project, One Hundred Student Revolutions, and the upcoming 20th anniversary of the founding of our association, and it will provide an ideal opportunity to reflect not only on what Czech oral history has achieved, but also on the possibilities of its current and future use.

RELEVANT THEMES INCLUDE, BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO:

- Oral history within the Czech historiography of contemporary history
- The interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary nature of oral history
- Current topics and problems of oral history research (e.g. temporality, dis/continuity, transformation...)

- The use of modern technologies in oral history research and source analysis
- Collaboration with narrators and preservation of oral history interviews
- Possibilities and limits of transnational oral history
